

BBO and the WBF Women's Committee invite you to the

Organized by

The Women's Online Festival is a week-long bridge event hosted by BBO and sponsored by the WBF Women's Committee. Each day features 12 tournaments, mixing exciting and innovative game formats such as Pairs, Individuals and Robot games.

Win a Free entry to Women's National Pairs Championship in Buenos Aires

Prizes

- Free entry to the Women's National Pairs Championship in Buenos Aires for the winner and the partner of their choice.
- Signed certificates from the WBF for the top 3 players in each festival category (Overall, Pairs, Individual, Robot).
- WBF Online Master Points for the Festival's top 20 players.
- Lots of BB$ and BBO Points awarded for all games as well as for daily races and overall rankings.

The partner of the winner must be a member of the same national bridge organisation (NBO).*

How to join?

All Festival games take place on www.bridgebase.com from April 8 through until April 14.

Only women are eligible for this event. If you have not played our Women's Online Festival on BBO before, please email us at tournaments@bridgebase.com and you will receive a form to apply. This will ensure you will be able to register and play any of the daily games during the Festival.

Pre-registration is not required. The Women's Online Festival games will be visible and open for registration on bridgebase.com, 24 hours before the Festival begins.

Entry Fees

All tournaments (except the Free Pairs) cost 1 BB$ to enter and offer BB$ prizes and BBO points to top finishers.

Schedule

There will be 12 games per day, from Monday, April 8 through until Sunday, April 14. You can play as many games as you like.

Interested? Contact us at tournaments@bridgebase.com for all details about this exciting event.