CONNECTING A GENERATION

2045 marks 100 years since Europe rebuilt itself from the rubble of World War II. By this date, your generation will be leading Europe. Leading nations, cities, communities, office blocks and households.

We live in an increasingly fast, fluid and disrupted world. In order to harness the true potential of Europe, your generation will need the skills and competencies to bring different people together—across many boundaries—to make Europe a global force for good.

You are part of the Europe101 generation and have the chance to define both your generations' legacy and what sort of leaders you want to be.

Europe101 will connect your generation across the continent and support you in thinking about what sort of leaders you want to be. In practise, Europe101 is a Model of Leadership, an online community and a free online programme for 18-25 year-olds in or from Europe.

A 'Model of Leadership' is a way of developing a common understanding of what sort of leadership qualities a group of individuals work towards practising. We need your help to uncover the leadership competencies that your generation in Europe both value and need.

Through a series of sector based work-streams we will uncover the Europe101 Model of Leadership which, in turn, will be translated into the free online leadership development programme launching in the Autumn 2021.

Be a part of pioneering the Europe101 generation by joining the Bridge Players work-stream, convened by Common Purpose and our Europe101 Partners.

You will participate in two, 2-hour focus group sessions on Zoom with the Europe101 team and Julia Middleton, Founder of Common Purpose. We will challenge you to think through how you want to lead the Europe of your generation and produce a prototype Model of Leadership.

With your input, and the input of other sector based work-streams with young people around the continent, we will uncover your generation's model of leadership.

By becoming part of Europe101 now, you will...
